He Is "Irremovable."

Church if Heirs of Property

Owners Win Civil Suit. The Rev. Guy L. Wallis, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Staten Island, against whom charges have been filed with Bishop Greer, refrained yesterday from any reference in his sermon to the parish troubles. but immediately after the morning service talked to several reporters. The attendance was said to be larger than forty-three persons, five of whom were men. among the latter was Edward Wanty, son- and partner, Leon Turkin, found the body. in-law of the Wards, who gave the prop-

The rector did not occupy the pulpit, but provided himself with a platform at the head of the middle aisle. Sometimes he sat | American ways, and was always a "swell down on the platform and talked. Then he ed down the aisle and talked as he did walked down the sisle and talked as he did men here, wearing American clothes and to His subject was personal righteous- affecting the brighest of colors. During the service, which was exceedingly ritualistic, Mr. Wanty told a reporter his side of the case, and said: We intend to abide by Bishop Greer's We do not want the property back for our own use. We want a religious work here that succeeds, and not attends, because of the forms of service and the obnoxious teaching."

When told that bishops usually take th side of the clergy and that a suit at law only lever, Mr. Wanty said his attorney had been instructed to go brought to the service. He said he hoped, to adjust matters.

After the service the Rev. Mr. Wallis in kept overcoats and hats on to keep warm The rector made himself more comfortable with coffee and pipes, and the others stood up or walked to help circulation. Father Wallis, as he is called, made a statement and then added some additional points by way of information.

The statement was to the effect that he an irremovable rector, and that neither Bishop Greer, the vestry nor the courts if told to do so. Otherwise he

He would say nothing against any of the vestrymen beyond stating that they were needless. Asked why so few attended services, he replied that the attendance had The church seats 450 and has a parish building seating as many The membership, on paper, he said, was 300, but really there were perhaps

Mr. Wallis for some months has acted as his own sexton, there being no money to hire one, and appearances yesterday indicated that he was also his own housekeeper. For a time he has acted also as choirtravagance and laxity in the administra- Tongs would carry the war into Brooklyn which President George Cromwell is the tong. responsible head.

TO BEGIN RICHMOND PROBE Grand Jury Will Investigate Charge of Extravagance.

the twenty-five members of the Public Safety Committee, which was recently appointed at a mass meeting held on Staten

This committee waited upon Mayor Gaynor a week ago and requested that the berough departments be investigated by Injunction League, to the labor unions on the inspection was to be held. the Commissioner of Accounts. The Mayor behalf of the league, asking them to ap acted on the committee's request and the investigation is now in progress under the personal direction of Raymond P. Fosdick, weekly in the Labor Temple. The appear Commissioner of Accounts.

On the Committee of Safety are former Secretary of the State Fishery Commission Edward P. Doyle, Edward W. Thompson and Charles Rosenberg, the latter two being among the largest taxpayers in Rich-

JUSTICE KIN TO REVENGE

Dr. Gladden, at Union Service, Says Origin Is Same. Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus

Ohio, who several years ago delivered the address on tainted money in connection with a gift of Mr. Rockefeller to the American Board of Foreign Missions, spoke at the union service of the Church of the Dithe union service of the Church of the Divine Paternity, the Free Synagogue and the Church of the Messiah on "The Evolution of Social Justice," last night at the Church of the Divine Paternity, 75th street and Central Park West.

The roots of justice," said Mr. Gladden, seem to run down into the elemental in stinct of revenge. Like every other good thing on earth, it has a coarse and crude origin. Until within a century or two eco nomic society has been founded on slavery or serfdom. In a society thus founded social justice is a meaningless term. Its basis is social injustice, and social justice is therefore a comparatively modern con-

It is every man's duty first to see that his own conduct conforms to it and then to see that the society in which he lives is organized and governed in accordance with it, so that the strength of all shall be pledged to the protection and the service of each and the loyalty of each shall be enlisted for the freedom and the welfare of all.

"Much that goes by the name of business will pass from sight under the reign of social justice. All the schemes whose purpose is to get something for nothing, or by clever deceptions to get much for little, will

"No man in God's universe by God's choice loses his chance to be a man. It is our business to keep that chance open be-fore every man, in prison or out."

PREACHES LAST SERMON HERE

The Rev. R. C. Campbell Says New

Yorkers Need Divine Discipline. The Rev. R. J. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple, London, England, delivered his last sermon, at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, yesterday. He is one of several pastors who have occupied the pulpit in this church in the absence of a permanent head since the Rev. Dr. C. F.

Last, the Police Say.

Cousin Says - Laundry Helper Disappears.

Members of the Boston and New York lyn early on Sunday morning, and Leon little room back of his laundry, at No. usual, some of those present evidently ex- 67. Park avenue, Brooklyn. The back of for inspection. It was just after dinner, pecting to hear a statement. There were his head was crushed in and a bullet hole was in his right temple, when his cousin Ki had lived in Boston many years, and erty to the church. He says he is still a stood high in the ranks of the On Leong tongs there. Two years ago he came to Brooklyn and set up his little laundry on Park avenue. He had grown to affect dresser," according to the ideas of China-

Six months ago Leon Ki went to Boston to visit his old associates. When he returned he seemed depressed. His partner asked him as to his troubles and was told by Ki that he feared the Hip Sing tongs had decided to kill him

Three weeks ago a strange Chinaman went to Ki's laundry and asked for work Turkin did not like his looks and did not want to hire him, but the man seemed to a competent worker and Ki made light of his partner's fears and took him into the shop in the little back room of the laundry ahead with the civil suit, no matter what it where the cousins spent their nights. Turkin grew to distrust the strange however, that Bishop Greer would be able Chinaman more and more, and one day when he saw a .38-callbre revolver among his effects was sure he had come to kill fred the reporters into the rectory next his partner. He told Ki, but again the There was no fire and everybody latter made light of his fears. Turkin resolved not to leave the men alone, and for two weeks the newcomer was not out of his sight. Saturday night he received word that a relation who lived in Pell street. Manhattan, was III, and after warning Ki to beware of the stranger went to risit his sick cousin. He spent the night in Manhattan and returned home about 10 o'clock yesterday.

As he entered the door of the little laun could remove him. He said, however, that dry he saw the entire place was in conif the heirs of the property got possession fusion. Bundles of clean clothes were through the civil courts he would go, of scattered all over the floor, furniture was overturned and everything was spattered with blood. The shop gave evidence of an awful death struggle.

Wildly calling the name of his cousin. Turkin rushed into the bunk room at the rear. That room, too, was in fearful disorder, and in his bunk lay the dead Ki The strange Chinaman was nowhere in sight, and all his belongings were gone. Detectives working on the case said the knew the name of the murderer, and that was a member of the Boston Hip Sing

Tong, sent here to "get" Ki. Members of the On Leong Tong invaded the gambling house of Mock Duck, at No Pell street, Manhattan, on December 5 and shot up the place, killing Lung Yu, the ice-president of the Hip Sing Tong, and so severely wounding Ching Pong Sing, the president, that he died. For the life of their officers the Hip Sing Tongs swore to take the lives of twenty On Leong Tongs. the police heard. Detectives all over the The Richmond County Grand Jury will city had been watching for an outbreak, but to-day begin its probe into the alleged ex- it was not suspected that the Hip Sing tion of the present borough government, of and attack individual members of the rival Subposenas have been issued for the appearance before the grand jury to-day of ASKS LABOR TO JOIN FIGHT Anti-Injunction League Issues Appeals to the Local Unions.

An appeal was sent out yesterday by J. E. Reid, secretary of the National Antipoint a committee of three each to attend the meetings of the league, which are held said, in part: On the Committee of Safety are former Assemblyman William Allaire Shortt, former Sheriff Benjamin Brown, former District Attorney George M. Pinney, former Sheriff Senjamin Brown, former District Attorney George M. Pinney, former Smaller capitalists and the middlemen, log smaller capitalists and the middlemen, log maller capitalists and the middlemen, but, is growth of the power of a comparatively mall class of men, through their immense ches, is every day creating new conditions. The large corporations not only are full control of most of the means of projection, distribution and transportation of a necessaries of life, but they are also in introl of the government.

control of the government. The appeal went on to say that som help to crush labor by granting an injunction, and that the labor unions had spent many thousands of dollars in legally fighting injunctions, without being able to convince the judiciary that these organizations had nothing in common with trusts. The over the machines, but none was found

The Rev. Guy L. Wallis Declares Tong War Crosses Bridge at Immigration Officials Invade Mail Frauds That Netted $77,-

Saloon of Carmania in Bay.

of Rejected Aliens to Enter Country by First Cabin.

Shortly after the Cunard liner Carmania bombshell to the travellers, who thought and 184 convicted. States officials until their baggage was ready for examination on the pier. The ship's officers were unable to acto them they assembled the ninety-five or in the minds of the promoters." saloon passengers promptly. The travelrs were told to sit in line along the saloon tables and await the call of their Sharp says:

saloon tables and await the call of their names, which the inspectors read from the ship's manifest. When a name was called the passenger walked to where an inspector sat and answered as many questions as the official chose to ask. He was privileged to ask inght was restricted to about four or five. As the travellers replied the inspectors followed the manifest closely to see if the answers coincided with the remarks on the manifest. If the passenger answered the first three or four questions accurately he was permitted to leave the saloou.

Only one question was asked of American

The determination to bring these promoters into court and obtain prison sentences against them has proved exceedingly successful. In no instance, as far as known as person convicted on a criminal charge of this character attempted to reorganize his scheme under a new name, as was often the case when fraud orders alone were resorted to. The result of the year's work has developed the fact that these fraud manipulators are a distinct class of criminals, some of them moving in the highest social manifest. If the passenger answered the direction of the promoters and the determination to bring these promoters to the occurr and obtain prison sentences against them has proved exceedingly successful. In no instance, as far as known as person convicted on a criminal charge of this character attempted to reorganize his scheme under a new name, as was often the case when fraud orders alone were resorted to. The result of the year's work has developed the fact that these fraud manipulators are a distinct class of criminals, some of them moving in the highest promoters.

The determination to bring these promoters that court and obtain prison sentences against them has proved exceedingly successful. In no instance, as far as known to this office, has a person convicted on a criminal charge of this character attempted to reorganize his scheme under a new name, as was often the case when fraud orders alone were resorted to.

The result of the year's

Only one question was asked of American has been enforced on incoming steamships. ing port, but others, familiar with the law, the enormous amount of their ill-gotten expressed surprise that they should be sub- gains. seted to the examination demanded of allens in the second cabin and steerage. Several Englishmen resented the detention, and in reply to the question "How long do you intend to remain in this country?" plied: "I shall get out just as soon as questions were put to the allens: "Have prevent swindlers from carrying on their you ever been here before?" "Where were ou born?" "What is your nationality and the nationality of your wife?" "How long do you intend to be in this country and when do you expect to leave it?"

The majority of the Carmania's saloon passengers accepted the situation good-Why, this country is getting on a par with Russia," protested one Englishman. "One would think we had escaped the vigilance of Scotland Yard," remarked another 'America is becoming quite Continental,' centured a third.

casion for the inspection was due to the efforts of rejected and deported aliens to enter the country by coming here in the from Quarantine. examining declaration blanks in the pres- convincing to the President, and he is inence of passengers. These are now made clined to make the appointment shortly ut at sea and turned over to the purser a day before arrival and passengers are not City early to-day. The French Ambassa required to bother with them until the vessel docks.

The officers of the Carmania who were ing, but remained in the Executive Mansion called upon to assemble the passengers in the dining saloon declared last night that they had no objection to the order, but felt they should have had some warning that

NO CLEW TO FAY SLAYER

Search to Find Automobile Which Caused Death Brings No Result. No new clews were unearthed vesterday which would tend to establish the identity of the automobilists who ran down and killed Patrick Fay, jr., on Friday night in front of his home, No. 12 West End avenue Thomas Lorenz, who was with Fay when the accident occurred, has given the officers the only information on which they can He says that the number on the counterfeit judge" was always ready to machine was 49630. Investigation showed the garage during the night in question.

Yesterday Lorenz and his brother David were taken by Detectives McCormack and which answered their description.

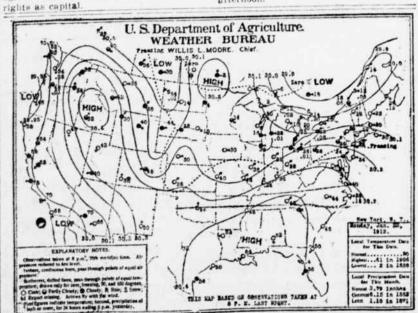

winds.

For Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia and Virginia, fair weather and moderate temperature to-day and Tuesday; light to moderate west

For West Virginia, fair weather and moderate temperature to-da; and Tuesday.

For Western Pennsylvania and Western New York, fair and somewhat warmer to-day; Tues-day fair; moderate west winds.

Official observations taken at United State weather bureaus at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Official Record and Forecast,-Washington arted anywhere within the United States. and as a result fair weather prevailed during he last twenty-four hours over practically the entire country. There were, however, snow-flurries in the St. Lawrence Valley and a number of points on the Great Lakes. The weather is considerably warmer over the Mississippi valley, the plains states and the Rocky Mountain regions, and temperatures throughout the country are now generally near or above the

There is nothing at the present time to indicate a return of unseasonably cold weather in any part of the country within the next several days Pair weather will prevail Monday and Tuesday throughout practically the entire Aked resigned last April. He will sail for England next Wednesday.

In his closing sermon Mr. Campbell likened modern people generally, and New Yorkers particularly, in their lack of confidence in spiritual guidance to the young cagle who refused to try his wings until guided by the mother cagle into the outer world. He added:

You New Yorkers need much divine discipline to guide you. Only too easily are you inclined to liken your thoughts and actions to that of the young eagle on his high ledge. You believe, like him, that your united to like material considerations are your only world. How many of us are there whose horizon is so limited:

Adays. Fail weather will prevail anonally land practically the entire of the sull rise Monday in the outer will rise Monday in the clear Mushington.

34 Clear Clear Clear Washington.

34 Clear Washington.

35 Louis. % Louis. % Louis. % Louis washington.

36 Clear Washington.

46 Clear Washington.

47 Washington.

48 Louis. % Louis. % Louis. % Louis. % Louis washington.

49 Washington.

40 Washington.

40 Washington.

40 Washington.

40 Washington.

40 Washington.

40 Washington.

41 Local Official Record.—The following official record from the Weather Bureau shows the change little elsewhere throughout precord from the Weather Bureau shows the record from the Seal Supports washington.

4 Local Official Record.—The following official trecord from the Weather Bureau shows the record from the Weather Bureau shows the class treatment of the temperature seat supports washington.

52 Louis Could for the country supports washington.

53 Louis Could for the Washington.

54 Louis

WOULD OBEY COURT ORDER BOSTON HIP SING SUSPECTED FIRST TIME IN TEN YEARS 184 CONVICTIONS OBTAINED

Will Only Leave Staten Island Victim Expected Death, His Action Caused by Alleged Efforts Chief Postoffice Inspector Reports 529 Indictments of Illegitimate Promoters.

000.000 Ended in Year.

Washington, Jan. 21 .- Promoters of fraudulent schemes who had obtained $77,000,000 Chinese tongs carried their war to Brook- left Quarantine last night on her way to from the public were put out of business dock several immigration inspectors sent during the fiscal year ended on June 30 munication to Congress or to the governword to Mr. Clarke, the purser, saying last, according to the annual report of Robert S. Sharp, chief inspector of the Postoffice Department, issued to-day fiscal year 529 individuals were indicted on addressing Mr. Heyburn, continues: the charge of using the mails in schemes to defraud. Of this number 196 were tried and 184 convicted. The schemes investigated were of endless variety, varying, as the report indicates, "from the simplest business transaction to a gigantic project involving the sale of worthless stock in fake mining companies and insertions and institutional protections."

After declaring that he has been a citic investigated with a surprise of law," rather than under the constitutional protection which surrounds your privilege to wag your unbridled tongue in indirection and insinuation.

After declaring that he has been a citic investigated to investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the declaring that he has been a citic investigate the citical and the Maritime Association by Willard U. Taylor. The proceeding was begun by the Merchants' Association, which invited the other organizations, the city and the state to join with it.

In 1898 a commission was appointed to investigate the city and the state to join with it. they would not be bothered by United gated were of endless variety, varying, as ount for the demand of the immigration fake mining companies and imaginary and officials, but as soon as the order was sent fictitious institutions existing only on paper

In discussing the multiplicity of schemes to defraud the people, Chief Inspector

In view of the heavy loss to the Postof fice Department in prosecuting the cases the United States?" When they said yes Mr. Sharp recommends that this work be they were allowed to go. This is the first taken over for inquiry by the Department of Justice. He adds that "the work of the last year has uncovered a condition among Allens inexperienced in travel accepted the swindling class which shows the the inspection as part of the routine enter- astounding extent of their operations and > points out, "has been to crush out the strong and powerful criminals, who have served to eliminate the smaller operators: Mr. Sharp suggests that 'It is essentia > for the protection of the public that addi tional legislation be enacted which will operations in the borderland between legiti mate undertakings and criminal schemes. During the year 2,491 arrests were made of which 429 were postoffice burglars. Of the number arrested, 112 were postmasters, 25 assistant postmasters, 98 clerks in post offices, 31 railway postal clerks, 42 city let ter carriers, 28 rural letter carriers, 16 mail carriers and 14 other employes, and 2,112 ersons not connected with the postal ser

TAFT MAY NAME HOOK SOON

It was said unofficially last night that Believed in Washington Objections to Judge Are Futile.

Washington, Jan. 21.-Among friends o first cabin. According to an official of the President Taft it was generally understood Cunard Line, the examination of saloon to-night that the nomination of United passengers by immigration inspectors will States Circuit Judge Hook, of Kansas, to defeat the efforts of the customs officials the Supreme Court, succeeding the late o obviate a tedious delay of passengers in Justice Harian, would be sent to the Senthe dining saloon when on the way up the ste during the present week. Objections to The Collector Judge Hook, referred to Attorney General abolished a few years ago the custom of Wickersham, it was said have not proved dor, M. Jusserand, returned with him. The President did not go to church this morn-

CARNEGIE TO GIVE $850.000 To Build Home for Federation of Indians in Capital.

Washington, Jan. 21.-Andrew Carnegie was learned here to-day, has offered to ontribute $850,000 for headquarters of the Federation of North American Indians, reently organized in a convention held here An architect, it is said, would be here -morrow to consider the site and the style to be used in the new building. The national capital already has three buildings erected partly by Mr. Carnegie's donaions-the Pan-American Building, the 'arnegie Institution of Washington and the Carnegie Public Library. To the Pan-American Building he gave $750,000, the Latin-American republics contributing $250,

STEPHENSON INQUIRY OPEN

Bresnan to various uptown garages to look | Minority Report on Senator's Election May Yet Be Made.

Washington, Jan. 21.-Certain membe of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections are not yet satisfied with the indings of the sub-committee which vestigated and exonerated Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, on the charges growing out of his election, and it is intimated that a minority report may be presented to the Senate.

The sub-committee reported to the full ommittee yesterday that no evidences of corrupt practices in the election of Senator Stephenson had been found, but during a discussion of the report certain members of the committee asked for more time to consider the report.

One member admitted to-day that some of his colleagues were averse to accepting the report before ample time had been given to read the testimony, and that if their investigation warranted a minority report would be made. At the meeting yesterday an extension of two weeks was

NO UNUSUAL COLD EXPECTED Rain and Snow on Friday Only Disturbance Predicted for Week. Washington, Jan. 21.-There is nothing at present to indicate that a general cold wave will cross the country this week. The bulletin issued by the Weather Bureau tonight says temperatures will average near or above the normal throughout the coun-Generally fair weather will prevail east of the Rocky Mountains, except that rains and snows will attend a disturbance that will appear in the Atlantic states Friday or Saturday. Moderate weather and wind

NEW GOVERNOR OF BENGAL

conditions will prevail over the northern

Atlantic steamship routes during the com-

Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael, Recently Raised to Peerage, Appointed.

London, Jan. 21.-The rumor recently circulated that Sir Krishna Gobinda Gupta, a member of the Indian Council, was to be appointed Governor of the new Province of Bengal was disposed of to-night by the official announcement of the appointment of Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael.

Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael has been Governor of Madras for about a year, and was Governor of Victoria, Australia, from 1908 to 1911. He was raised to the peerage on January 1 last.

WON'T QUIT, SAYS RECTOR KILL BROOKLYN CHINAMAN PASSENGERS LINED UP MANY SWINDLERS CAUGHT GOMPERS DEFIES HEYBURN which of us stands for the dollar and which of the dollar and which of the dollar and which of the manhood, the womanhood and the Challenges Senator to Produce Any Evidence Against Him.

Washington, Jan 21.-Senator Heyburn of Idaho, is challenged by Samuel Gomrs, president of the American Federation of Labor, in an editorial in the February issue of "The American Federationist." to roduce in a court of law any evidence which he may have of any illegal acts performed by Gompers. The editorial is based on the incident in the Senate last Thursday, when Senator Heyburn said that no communication should be received from Gompers "because of the facts disclosed in the McNamara trial and subsequent thereto.

The Idaho Senator also asserted that the president of the American Federation of Labor was not qualified to address a com-

Referring to his challenge to Detective Burns and his sponsors to prove in a court of law any charge which either or all of the history of the department. During the them may bring against him, Gompers, Exchange and the Board of Trade and > zen of the United States since 1872, Gompers says: There is nothing which you can say, Senater Heyburn, which will at all reflect Interstate Commerce Commission, which, 311 East 19th street, Brooklyn, said her open my work, my life and my character, and I am willing that the American people time to fix rates, as it has now.

FIGHT FOR EXPORT TRADE

City and State Bodies to Appeal to Commerce Commission. About forty years ago this city had 77 per cent of the Atlantic export trade, but it has dwindled to less than 25 per cent, and the various state, city and com-mercial organizations say it is because of discrimination against the city by the rallroads, which have diverted trade to other ports. The freight rate to Baltimore from

To-day the organizations will appeal to Washington. The state will be represented by Henry Selden Bacon, Deputy Attorney sistant Corporation Counsel, and the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Associ Transportation by Ben L. Fairchild, and the pounds lower than to New York.

After declaring that he has been a citi- investigate the decline in the city's commerce, and reported in 1900 against the windows. Thomas Beatty, of railroad rates. Four years later the commercial bodies of the city appealed to the however, did not have the power at that

Loop, Is Struck Broadside On.

ers escaped being cut by flying glass late yesterday afternoon, when two cars of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company crashed in the Manhattan terminal of the bridge The collision occurred as a bridge local was leaving loop No. 5, a Fulton street car, in charge of Motorman Peter J. Loosen coming up from Loop 1, striking the local car broadside and breaking most of the 25th street, told the police his back had been wrenched, and Mary Marronlo, of No wrist was sprained. The accident caused

NO. 50-MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1912.

New-York Tribune's Bookreaders'Contest $15,450 in Prizes

THESE PICTURES REPRESENT?

Contestants are required to write their answers upon the coupon which is printed on Page 2 of The Tribune every day during the Contest. An-

Many Reasons Why You Should Enter This Contest

This Is the Eighth Week, but if You Enter Now You'll Have

WARNING!

The Contest Department WARNS CONTESTANTS against patronizing firms or persons who are advertising or offer to supply lists of so-called solutions to the Bookreaders' Contest pictures. These so-called experts are nothing more than competitors themselves and cannot possibly secure any advance information concerning the correct answers to the contest illustrations. Don't let them get a CONTEST MANAGER.

THE TRIBUNE'S Bookreaders' Competition is unique, entertaining and attractive. The prizes offered are exceptional. They are the best that money can buy.

There are automobiles, pianos, player pianos, diamonds, cash and more than a thousand valuable prizes.

nor bother your friends about getting subscriptions, nor make any promises. You don't even have to send in your name.

You don't even have to give the name of the author of the book. Only the name or title is all that is required.

explained at the foot of this announcement. The correct answers are all to be found in The Tribune's Official Bookreaders' Contest Catalogue. This Catalogue makes the contest extremely easy and places each and every contestant upon

The price of the catalogue is 25 cents at the The contest is just a little beyond the halfway

There are still twenty-five instalments of

Tribune's Bookreaders' Catalogue

The Official Bookreaders' Contest Catalogue of The New-York Tribune, containing a large list of book titles, among which are included trations throughout the Bookreaders' Contest. will be a great aid to contestants in arriving to any address upon receipt of 30 cents in 1-cent or 2-cent postage stamps. If cata-logues are ordered by mail, contestants should

THE CONTEST MANAGER, Bookreaders' Contest Department,

1-83,200 Five-Passenger Stearns Automabile. The F. B. Stearns Company, Broadway and 57th 81.

2-$2,200 White Touring Car. The White Company, Broadway and 52d 84.

3-4-82,100 Boecker Art Player Pianos, $1,050 cach. E. Boecker, 25 West 38th 81.

5-8900 Francis Bacon Art Plane. Bacon Piano Company, 113 East 138th 81.

6-8800 Anderson Player Piano. The Anderson Piano Company, 170 Fiano. The Anderson Piano Company, 270 Fulton 81., Brooklyn.

7-8730 Francis Bacon Player Piano.

8-9-81,200. Two Wing Planos, 8600 cach. Wing & Son, Ninth Ave. and 13th 81.

10-11-81,000. Two Boecker Art Pianos, $600 and $400, respectively.

12-8330 Dining Room Sulte. Lennon & Company, 151 East 23d 81.

13-8100 cash.

14-8100 Sollitaire Diamond Ring.

15-16-8110 Cluster Diamond Princess Rings, $60 and $50, respectively. L. W. Sweet & Co., 170 Broadway.

17-850 cash.

18-19-890 Cluster Diamond Princess Rings, $45 cach. L. W. Sweet & Co.

20-29-8400. Owen Kodav Leather Beds. $40 cach. D. T. Owen Company, 34 East 23d 81.

30-31-850 cash, $25 cach.

30-31-850 cash, $10 cach.

66-67-810 cash, $5 cach.

Place an order with your nearest newsdealer to begin serving you with a copy of The Tribune every day and enter the Contest at once.

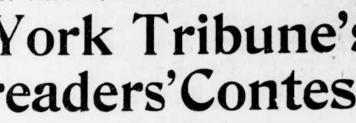

Back numbers of the Bookreaders' Contest Pictures and coupons may be had at the office of The Tribune, No. 154 Nassau street. The price in New York City, Jersey City and Hoboken is 1 cent for the Daily and 5 cents for the Sunday. Elsewhere the price is 2 cents for the Daily and 5 cents for the Sunday. Where back numbers are ordered by mail 1 cent additional for every 10 numbers must be remitted for postage. All of the back numbers from December 4 will be mailed to any address in greater New York upon receipt of 83 cents. Outside greater New York and Jersey City upon receipt of $1 26. In ordering back numbers contestants are cautioned to order only by the number which appears at top of the coupon.

WHAT ARE THE NAMES OF THE BOOKS

NO. 100.

swers must not be sent in until the last two pictures are published.

And Not a Single Reason for Not Doing So

Plenty of Time.

TO BOOKREADER CONTESTANTS

penny of your money.

There's no red tape about entering.
You don't need to be nominated, solicit votes,

You are a contestant the moment you begin to solve the pictures.

By entering the contest now you will not have to wait so long for a decision upon the merits of THE WAY TO ENTER IS SIMPLE. You need the back numbers of the Bookreaders' Contest pictures and their coupons. They are ready, and always in stock—and may always be had at the office of The Tribune or by mail, as an equal footing—as it places the correct answers right in the contestant's hands. Tribune office: 30 cents by mail.

pictures to be published.

After that date there are to be nearly three weeks for contestants to send in their answers.

That gives any one ample time to begin now and get in line for a big reward.
You can begin by solving to-day's pictures.
Solve to-morrow's pictures. Give the contest a few days' trial, and then if you don't like it drop out, but if you do—and you will—get the back numbers, and go in with the determination to win.
This may be your opportunity to secure an automobile or a fine player plane or one of the many other valuable rewards.
This is the eighth week of the contest, but if you begin now you'll have plenty of time.

Great Aid to Contestants all of the correct titles to be used for the illusat the correct names of the books and their proper spelling. The price is 25 cents at the office of The Tribune, or a copy will be mailed

New-York Tribune, New York City.

COMPLETE LIST OF PRIZES 1-$3,200 Five-Passenger Stearns Automobile. The F. B. Stearns Company, Broadway and 36—65—$300. Men's or Ladies' Gold Watches, $10 each.

68—67—$10 cash, $5 each.
68—167—$300. American Thermos, $3 each. American Thermos Company, 243 West 17th St.
168—267—$300. Ladies' or Gentlemen's Silk Umbrelias, $3 each. M. Steinschneider, 27 Maiden Lane.
268—367—$750. Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens, $2 50 each, L. E. Waterman Company, 173 Broadway.
568—1067—$750. Twelve months' subscription to "Pearson's Magazine," $1 50 a year. The Pearson Publishing Company, 435 East 24th St.

